

Mrs Abiola Morgan Anyakwo is a Nigerian lawyer called to the Nigerian Bar in 1982 and admitted to the roll of solicitors of England and Wales in 1998. Mrs. Morgan-Anyakwo secured a Bachelors Degree in Law from the University of Lagos, Nigeria in 1981 and a Masters Degree in Law from the University of Cambridge, England in 1984.

Mrs. Morgan-Anyakwo has extensive experience in providing legal and business advice to clients, and has a strong commercial sense gained in over 20 years of corporate/commercial law practice. Specializing in the area of international commercial law, joint ventures and strategic alliances, Mrs Anyakwo has worked with many multi-national organizations in facilitating their business and investment in Nigeria.

Mrs. Morgan-Anyakwo has acted as retained counsel to several multi national and joint venture companies involved in the aviation, telecommunications and energy sectors of the Nigerian economy, sometimes serving as representative of these foreign investors on the board of their Nigerian subsidiary and affiliated companies.

Notable assignments include acting as retained counsel to a British international airline in its strategic alliances with the Nigerian National Carrier; acting as counsel to a Canadian technology firm in its supply of US$15 million telecommunications equipment and its significant investment in a Nigerian company; and acting as counsel to international telecommunications company in its application for vendor financing from an international financial institution.

Mrs Morgan-Anyakwo is a partner in the commercial law firm, Legal Partnership Consult, in Lagos, Nigeria. She is Strategic Legal Consultant / International Business-Development Lawyer at Lowe & Company.

Mrs. Morgan-Anyakwo works with clients to research business opportunities for foreign firms seeking to establish a presence in Canada and is part of the firms global human resources team, serving clients from diverse countries and industries.