

STANLEY W.H. LEO

Stan joined Lowe & Company's immigration law practice in October 2013. Prior to joining Lowe & Company, Stan articulated at a full-service business law firm in Vancouver before joining the residential real estate practice of a firm in the Tri-Cities. Stan obtained his J.D. from the University of Manitoba and his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Simon Fraser University.

At Lowe & Company, Stan seeks to provide clients with sound, educational and strategic advice in light of the particular objectives and circumstances of each client. Stan most often advises clients on immigration law matters such as:

- Skilled worker immigration through Express Entry, the BC PNP, and other relevant programs;
- Overseas and in-Canada Spousal Sponsorships;
- Work authorizations including those involving:
 - Clergy and Religious Workers;
 - Free Trade Agreements; and
 - Labour Market Impact Assessments;
- Overcoming inadmissibility matters; and
- Permanent resident card renewals.

More recently, Stan has begun to share his experience through seminars and written materials including:

- November 2016: "Introduction to Owner Operator Labour Market Impact Assessments", Seminar, Immigration Education Alliance;
- April 2016: "Business Immigration Options: Creative Work Permit strategies", Co-Author, Canadian Bar Association;
- May 2015: "Update on Canada's Immigration Laws for Religious Workers", Co-Author, Canadian Council for Christian Charities; and
- October 2014: "Business Immigration: Past, Present and Future", Co-Author, Continuing Legal Education Society of British Columbia.
