

Vivien Lee is a member of Immigration Consultants of Canada Regulatory Council and a member of the Society of Notaries Public of British Columbia, and she has worked with Lowe & Company since 1990. Vivien's clientele includes skilled workers, families, international students, religious workers, business owners, professionals, executives, even movie stars.

Vivien is currently teaching Family Class Immigration Law at the University of British Columbia Extended Learning Division (Certificate in Immigration Law, Policies and Procedures). Extensive knowledge and experience in Canadian immigration matters, Cross-cultural sensitivity, and fluency in English and Chinese allow Vivien to assist a wide range of diverse clients, as well as provide advice and assistance to other immigration consultants. Vivien has been featured on TV, radio, print, and other media both locally and nationally. Her immigration clients come from over 50 countries and many different immigration categories.

Vivien was sworn in as a Notary Public by the Supreme Court of British Columbia in June of 1999. In that capacity, Vivien also practices in Wills and Estates planning, purchase and sale of businesses as well as in real estate law.
