

STANLEY W.H. LEO

Stan joined Lowe & Company's immigration law practice in October 2013. Prior to joining Lowe & Company, Stan articulated at a full-service business law firm in Vancouver before joining the residential real estate practice of a firm in the Tri-Cities. Stan obtained his J.D. from the University of Manitoba and his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science from Simon Fraser University.

At Lowe & Company, Stan seeks to provide clients with sound, educational and strategic advice for the objectives and circumstances of each client. Stan most often advises clients on immigration law matters such as:

- Skilled worker immigration through:
 - programs using the Express Entry system;
 - the BC PNP; and
 - other relevant programs;
- Overseas and in-Canada Spousal Sponsorships;
- Work authorizations including those involving:
 - Clergy and Religious Workers;
 - Free Trade Agreements; and
 - Labour Market Impact Assessments;
- Overcoming inadmissibility matters;
- Permanent resident card renewals; and
- Citizenship applications.

Stan has also shared his experience through seminars and written materials including:

- October 2018: "Finding the Right Tone", Co-Presenter, Seminar, Immigration Education Alliance;
- October 2018: "To LMIA or Not to LMIA... is that the Question?", Co-Presenter, Seminar, Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants (National Conference);
- September 2018: "Business Work Authorization and Immigration Options", Co-Presenter, Seminar, Immigration Education Alliance;
- March 2018: "LMIA Owner Operator & Other Business Work Permit Options", Co-Presenter, Seminar, Canadian Association of Professional Immigration Consultants;
- November 2016: "Introduction to Owner Operator Labour Market Impact Assessments", Seminar, Immigration Education Alliance;
- April 2016: "Business Immigration Options: Creative Work Permit strategies", Co-Author, Canadian Bar Association;
- May 2015: "Update on Canada's Immigration Laws for Religious Workers", Co-Author, Canadian Council for Christian Charities; and
- October 2014: "Business Immigration: Past, Present and Future", Co-Author, Continuing Legal Education Society of British Columbia.